

IF YOU AGREE that our children are watching too much television, you'll like this one about the young lad who rushed home from kindergarten and insisted his mother buy him a set of pistols, complete with holsters and gun belt.

"Why, whatever for, dear?" the mother asked. "You're not going to tell me that you need them for school?"

"Yes, I do," he asserted. "The teacher said that tomorrow she's going to teach us to draw."

H. M. BAGGARLY, editing The Tulsa Herald, is our opinion one of the best writers in West Texas. We reprint the following from a recent issue of his newspaper:

One of the most unpopular governmental activities of this age is foreign aid—sometimes called mutual assistance. Stand on the street corner and bemoan foreign aid and a receptive audience will quickly gather. The critic will support his blast first of all with the allegation that "you can't buy friends."

And... he is right! That, in a nutshell is what has been wrong with our foreign aid program. As a rich nation with food and fiber rotting in our granaries and warehouses, we have not been seeking to obey the Biblical admonition to come to the aid of the underdog, the one in need. We have not been displaying charity and "love our neighbor as ourselves." Instead, we have been attempting to buy peace for ourselves! We have been trying only to save our own selfish hides. We have been trying to bribe hungry people not to join with our enemies.

Our motive has been wrong. And because our foreign neighbors are not so stupid as we give them credit, they see the selfishness that lives in our souls. Of course, they do not fall at our feet, licking our neighbor as ourselves. In them loans, because of our "generosity." They see our true motives.

There is no difference between a hungry neighbor who lives across the street and a hungry nation that lives across an ocean. The principle is exactly the same.

It isn't popular today to speak of neighborliness unless we limit the term to include only our social clique or neighborhood. Popular today is the doctrine that we are not our brother's keeper; let every man look out for himself; let's look after me—my wife and my son, John; let's lavish ourselves with luxury—and let's look the other way if a starving man comes around. Let's strip the halo from the Good Samaritan, because, after all, the guy befriend probably didn't appreciate the help anyway.

DON HYMER, popular dry cleaner of our town, will tell you that he has a time keeping a supply of hangers on hand for the clothes that pass through his shop. Then there's another resident of the community who has the opposite sort of problem when he says:

Please someone, explain, and elucidate how wire hangers accumulate!

JUST A BATCH OF short skirts we picked up here and there—like hash, you know, they accumulate...

A wizard is a husband who can keep up with the neighbors and the instalments, too.

There's nothing wrong with having nothing to say. Just don't say it out loud.

It's a pretty sorry world in many respects, but it's probably better than most of us deserve.

An optimist is the kind of person who believes a house fly is looking for a way out.

Do it tomorrow. You've made enough mistakes today.

About all many people have at the end of the year to show for their work is an accumulation of cancelled checks.

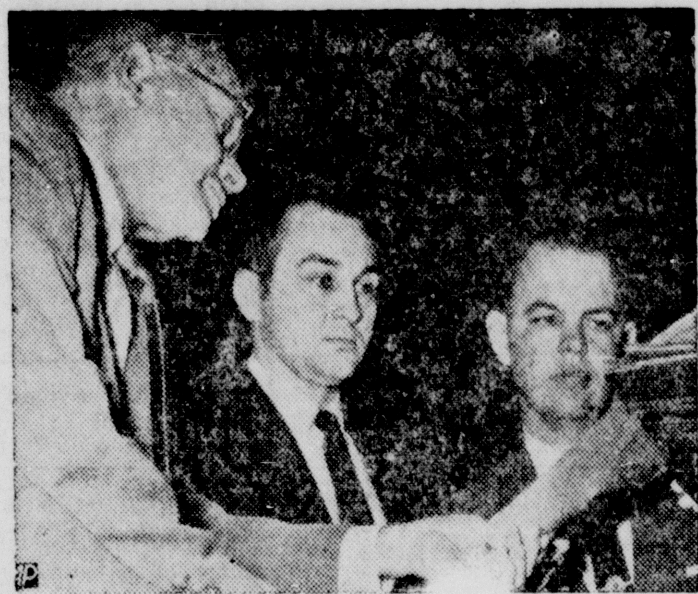

Women are now at a distinct disadvantage. Man has finally learned how to travel faster than sound.

Nothing deteriorates your car so much as your neighbor's buying a new one.

The notion that it is easy to find a gas leak with a lighted match now has been exploded.

Love your enemy. He'll be so shocked he'll go crazy.

Tomorrow never comes, but the day after the night before always does.

Cotton Choices to Be Meeting Topic

A program of interest to cotton farmers in this area has been arranged by County Agent Kirby for 7:30 p. m. Thursday, February 12, in the county court room at Anson. Cecil Parker, farm management specialist from Texas

A. & M. College, will be on hand to explain Plans A and B allotments and price supports for their farms.

If a farmer chooses the Plan A farm allotment and complies with it, his 1959 upland cotton crop will be eligible for price supports of not less than 80 per cent of parity. If he chooses and complies with Plan B allotment—which is 40 per cent larger than Plan A—his crop will be eligible for support at a level which is 15 per cent of parity less than Plan A. Each cotton producer must choose only one plan regardless of the number of farms he operates.

Deadline date for making this choice is March 16. Every cotton farmer shall have been advised officially of the price support level available for cotton produced on Plan A and B allotment farms within a few days. The rate was set last week-end by the Department of Agriculture at 30.40 cents for seven-eighths-inch staple.

Parker will discuss and explain both plans to the farmers and they will be given an opportunity to ask questions regarding them. Morris Jones of the Jones County ASC office will have a part on the program; and George Krupala, with the Soil Conservation Service, will discuss the Great Plains conservation program with the group.

Everyone interested in these discussions is urged to attend.

Big Gas Pressure Hit in Tannehill Test North of City

Unusual gas pressure was encountered over the week-end in the Joe Saitta and Dorman Anderson of Wichita Falls test No. 2 on the Scott-Turner lease, seven miles northeast of Hamlin. Site is in Section 134, Block 1, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, near the Jones-Stonewall County line.

No. 2 Scott-Turner was drilled stem tested at 2,451-64 feet in the Tannehill strata. With the tool open for 45 minutes, gas surfaced in eight minutes with a strong blow. The tool unloaded while coming out of the hole.

Recovery was 1,620 feet of oil and 180 feet of oil-cut mud. Flowing pressure was 55 to 350 pounds; and shut-in pressure in 15 minutes was 795 pounds.

No. 2 Scott-Turner was drilling below 2,480 feet. Proposed depth is 3,300 feet.

It is a southwest offset to operator's No. 1 Scott-Turner, completed as a Tannehill Sand discovery recently. That project was pumping at the rate of 85 barrels of oil per day, plus an unestimated amount of water. Perforations are at 2,646-80 feet opposite the Tannehill, which was fractured.

Location is five-eighths of a mile west of the SLC (Tannehill) Field. Operators believe the No. 1 Scott-Turner is in a different reservoir of oil due to a difference in the bottom hole pressures.

Junior Class Play Set Friday, February 20

Do you think "Father Knows Best?" Perhaps you will know more about this question when you shall have seen the annual play by the junior class of Hamlin High School, scheduled for Friday evening, February 20.

Father (Danny McCurdy) takes a firm stand on family matters, and the results are hilarious. This is guaranteed to furnish a good evening's entertainment for young and old.

Four Lads Uninjured In Overturn of Car

Only minor injuries were sustained Monday afternoon by four Hamlin High School boys when their convertible overturned into a ditch just off the highway west of town on the Rotan highway.

Man's Attorneys Give Notice of Appeal of Case

Robert Shelton Jr., former Hamlin negro, accused of the rape of a 72-year-old woman north of Sweetwater last August 28, was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison last Thursday morning at Sweetwater.

The verdict was returned by the 32nd District Court jury about 10:30 a. m. The jury began deliberation at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday and recessed for the night at 9:45 p. m., beginning again Thursday morning.

Shelton was tried on the same charge last November, but the jury was unable to agree on a verdict and a mistrial was declared. Both juries were made up of five women and seven men.

Court appointed defense attorneys said Thursday they would appeal the decision. His attorneys were Carl Anderson and Clyde Boose, who gave their time as members of the bar association. He prosecution was headed by District Attorney Eldon Mahon of Colorado City.

Bad Weather Causes Slump in Attendance At Sunday Schools

Rate Is 1.32 Cents Than Last Year's Parity Support

Cotton farmers of the Hamlin area and the rest of the Cotton Belt found little optimism in the announcement over the week-end by the Department of Agriculture from Washington of the new base cotton support rate of 30.40 cents—1.32 cents less than last year's base rate. This is for cotton to be produced this year in compliance with regular federal planting control allotments.

The department also announced a base rate of 34.70 cents for cotton grown under an alternate program allowing growers to exceed regular allotments 40 per cent.

These rates apply to seven-eighths-inch cotton, the base grade for price support purposes. Premiums are offered for better grades, while poorer grades are discounted.

Legislation enacted last year set up the alternate choice program granting supports at not less than 80 per cent of parity for growers complying with allotments and 15 parity percentage points less for growers electing to overplant allotments 40 per cent.

Last year's single base rate—only for cotton grown in compliance with allotments—was 31.32 cents a pound.

Rates just announced reflect 80 per cent and 65 per cent of parity.

PROBLEM FOR TEXAS: NEW SOURCES FOR TAX

With its great oil, gas and sulphur production and other natural resources output, Texas has been the most fortunate state in the union in the matter of source of income—looking at it from a political standpoint, declares The Dallas Morning News. State expenditures went up from $33,000,000 in 1920 to more than $1,000,000,000 in the current fiscal year, yet with very little protest from the people.

The State Tax Study Commission reports that Texas has relied on severance and ad valorem taxes on oil, gas and sulphur for 32 per cent of the state's tax dollar while 16 per cent of the local revenue has come from the same sources.

Texas still has great oil and gas resources for development. It has about one-half of the nations underground reserves of each. But with the prodigious amounts of oil being discovered in foreign lands and with their competition with domestic oil increasing, we might as well be realistic about the future outlook for any greatly increased revenue from this source.

Other states lacking Texas' natural resources have increased their state expenditures about as fast as Texas has. In doing so, most of them have relied upon a state income tax or a state sales tax or both. Both of these forms of taxation are widely opposed in Texas. And a recent poll of the members of the Legislature shows that there is great opposition to them in this body.

So the coming Legislature is going to be confronted with the very great question of where to get some $200,000,000 that will be needed to offset the state's already accumulated deficit and, in addition, provide for some pressing demands for new expenditures.

The present Tax Study Commission was directed by Legislature not to make recommendations as to specific taxes. Maybe this was a mistake. What is the use of conducting long research to discover what is obvious to anyone who knows anything about the state's finances, namely, that there is a deficit and a scarcity of new tax resources in the face of mounting demands?

If the session of Legislature fails to find the new sources necessary, maybe the Tax Study Commission should be continued with authority to recommend new sources of income.

No Need for Panic

We have heard much of the alleged plight of the nation's schools, ascribed to grossly inadequate pay for teachers, inadequate building of physical facilities, and other such regrets. The commonly proposed solution is federal support of education.

Now, however, the Institute of Social Science Research has issued an exhaustive study which reaches very different conclusions. It is signed by Roger Freeman, an acknowledged authority in this field who, among other things, was consultant on school finance to the white house conference on education.

Here are some of the points Freeman makes and substantiates: In terms of cost, education is the largest public service in the country next to national defense. Between 1929-39 and 1955-56, personal consumption expenditures doubled whereas public school expenditures tripled. In 1956, we spent $103.94 per capita on education as against $34.17 in Russia. In late years, the number of certified teachers has increased materially more on a percentage basis than the number of pupils. In these years, in addition, college majors in education have increased by 33 per cent where majors in other fields decreased by 28 per cent. The classroom shortage has been greatly exaggerated and is rapidly decreasing.

Finally, in 1957 teachers' pay, on the average, was 34 per cent above the 1929 level; earnings of all workers were 82 per cent above.

The study certainly does not claim that everything is perfect in education. But it certainly does show that our educational problems have been magnified out of all reason. There is no need to press any panic buttons.

Union Leaders Need Curbs

We emphasize here that not all unions are ridden with crooks and hoodlums. There are those unions whose only concern in the general welfare of the worker, and that union funds are applied directly to union members' benefits. These are the ideal—the model, the desired—type of unions that should exist in the land.

There is no time like the present that the members themselves within a questionable union should arise in strength and demand a cleaner slate for themselves, and not harbor from time to time characters who will hide behind the fifth amendment as a tool to escape disclosure.

The working man deserves a dollar's worth of service for every dollar he pays in for union dues. Yachts, mansions, high priced cars and "business" trips abroad should not consume
the money collected from dues.

University of Oklahoma stu-

W. Kent Westbrook of Hamlin turned in the winning paper in

TELEPHONE TALK

by Truman Black, Manager

Tooay You're Still Paying World War II "Emergency Taxes" on Your Telephone Bill

Next time you're checking over the charges on your monthly telephone bill, take a real close look at the second line from the top. Notice the figure indented under the word TAX.

I imagine you have seen it so often you hardly even pay any attention to it any more. And yet, it deserves your very special attention because it's about the closest thing to an unfair tax you'll ever be required to pay.

10% Federal Excise Tax

Most of that amount represents federal (U. S.) excise taxes—10c on every dollar of local and Long Distance phone service.

Doubtless few people even remember, but federal excise taxes were World War II emergency taxes designed to help raise money for defense, and to discourage use of vital telephone lines which were then needed for essential war-time purposes. When they were put on the books, the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee told Congress, "The increases on present excises, and new taxes, are temporary and will expire after the war."

Well, the war is over. But you and I are still paying the taxes.

Continuing World War II emergency taxes on an essential item like telephone service is so unbelievable it's almost funny. Except it's a little hard to laugh when you're being belted in the pocketbook that hard.

Only on Telephone Service

Of the four essential household utilities—gas, water, lights, telephone—only your telephone service is subject to excise taxes.

And, as if the tax itself isn't enough, there's also a hidden cost involved. You pay that, too. You see, we have to collect the tax and pass the proceeds along to Uncle Sam. This extra bookkeeping and billing adds to the expense of running the telephone business. Since we get the money to operate the business from only one source... our customers... you not only pay the tax, but the cost of collecting it as well.

If you feel as I do, that this unfair tax should be repealed, I invite you to write Senators Lyndon Johnson and Ralph Yarborough and Representative Omar Burleson and tell them so. One more reminder won't surprise them. They'll already have heard about it from me.

Don't Miss This TV Event!

The second Bell Telephone Hour on television will feature a host of musical stars including Duke Ellington, Ella Fitzgerald, Grant Tinker, Rose Stevens, Martha Wright and Russell Nye, with a wide variety of American artists. You can see it Tuesday, February 10, on Abilene, Channel 9, at 7:00 p. m.

H-SU Trustees' Wives Honored at Coffee At Annual Gathering

Wives of the Hardin-Simmons University trustees were honored with a coffee Tuesday morning in the parlor of Hunter Hall, dormitory for upperclass women at H-SU in Abilene. The coffee was held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the board of trustees.

Hostesses for the coffee were the wives of the administrative cabinet members. They included Mrs. W. T. Walton, who served as chairman, Mrs. E. W. Bailey, Mrs. H. B. Smith and Mrs. George L. Graham.

Parlor decorations were in pink and green, with pink carnations and fern centering the serving table. Mrs. John Alvis of Abilene presided at the coffee service.

The H-SU art department arranged an exhibit of paintings and mosaics in the parlor for the guests.

Following the coffee the ladies were taken on a tour of the H-SU library.

Wives of trustees attending the coffee were Mmes. W. W. Haynes, J. C. Hunter Jr., Leroy Jennings Sr., John Alvis and W. P. Wright, all of Abilene; John J. Keeter of Throckmorton, Tate May of Hamlin, Byron Bryant of Breckenridge, Barney Hubbs of Pecos,

Skiping Breakfast Is No Way to Reduce

If you're under the impression that skipping your breakfast is the best way to lose those few extra pounds the joke's on you. Your weight won't drop, but your test marks will.

In order to be alert, more efficient, happier and more physically attractive, you must take time in the morning to eat a good breakfast.

Get up when the alarm rings instead of sleeping those 15 extra minutes and you'll have time to enjoy a good breakfast.

You'll lose those extra pounds more quickly if you cut down on the calory-filled snacks you eat before bedtime.

BRIGHTENING SUEDE.

For just a slight general brightening up of suede articles there are several things you can do. A wire brush, of course, helps quite a bit—and it will help still more if you first go over the suede with a cloth dipped in vinegar. Another good brush-up can be done by rubbing a piece of stale rye bread over the surface of the suede.

J. E. Johnson of Temple, Roland L. House of San Antonio and W. B. Irvin of Fort Worth.

Other guests were Alice Berkshire, dean of women at H-SU; and Mrs. Isalou Moody, Hunter Hall director.

Trustees and their wives were honored with a luncheon Tuesday by Mrs. Evan Allard Reiff, wife of the president.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin.—This ancient bit of verse, written for newlyweds, might apply to the usual pace of legislative sessions, with short meetings and long week-ends in the early months, followed by an around-the-clock grind:

"The first month's sugar,
The second month's pie,
The third month you can work:
And so can I."

But this year lawmakers are being urged to cut short the honeymoon!

With committees appointed and put to work, Speaker Waggoner Carr urged House members to be "especially industrious" to save both time and money. Answers, he said, will "not be any easier to find next summer than this winter and spring."

Appropriations committee responded by putting itself on a five-days-a-week, eight-hours-a-day schedule, aimed at having the big appropriations bill ready in 60 days. Ordinarily, other legislation is held back until appropriation decisions are made.

House Committees.—After Carr defeated Representative Joe Burkett Jr. of Kerrville for speaker, suspense centered on how Burkett supporters would fare in Carr's committee lists.

Outcome was that Carr men, naturally, received all choice posts and approximately 86 per cent of committee chairmanships. Of the 43 House committees, 37 are headed by Carr supporters, four by definite Burkett supporters and two by persons whose vote was not known.

Top committees and their leaders are: Appropriations, W. S. Healy of Paducah, chairman, and John Heubner of Bay City, vice chairman; constitutional amendment, V. L. Ramsey of Beckville, chairman, and Frates S. Seeligson of San Antonio, vice chairman; state affairs, Richard Cory of Victoria, chairman, and Max C. Smith of San Marcos, vice chairman; oil and gas, Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, chairman, and Richard Slack of Pecos, vice chairman.

Insurance, Carl C. Conley of Raymondville, chairman, and Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, vice chairman; constitutional amendments, James M. Cotten of Weatherford, chairman, and Frank McGregor of Waco, vice chairman; motor traffic, H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, chairman, and Rufus Kilpatrick of Beaumont, vice chairman; agriculture, Truett Latimer of Abilene, chairman, and Harold B. Parish of Taft, vice chairman.

Senate Committees.—Less dramatic, but fully as important to legislative processes, were Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey's selections of Senate committees.

Top posts are concentrated among veteran senators, experienced in government, and in accord with conservative philosophy predominant in the upper House. Heaviest responsibility will be in the hands of Senator Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, state affairs chairman, and Senator William S. Fly of Victoria, finance chairman.

Other committee leaders include: State affairs, Jep Fuller of Port Arthur, vice chairman; finance, Preston Smith of Lubbock, vice chairman; agriculture and livestock, George Moffett of Chillicothe, chairman, and Culp Krueger of El Campo, vice chairman; labor and management relations, George Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman, and Krueger, vice chairman.

Also oil and gas Frank Owen III of El Paso, chairman, and Moffett, vice chairman; insurance, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, chairman, and Owen, vice chairman; transportation, Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, chairman, and William T. Moore of Bryan, vice chairman; constitutional amendment, Bill Wood of Tyler, chairman, and Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, vice chairman.

Gas "Explosion" Due.—Battle lines are being drawn swiftly and heavy artillery rolled up for the fight over Governor Price Daniel's tax program, particularly the gas severance tax.

Industry spokesmen criticize the governor's program as "short sighted" and deplore the increasing of levies on sources already being taxed. Gas men promised to fight the severance tax, if passed, all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court.

But Governor Daniel declared he had gotten many more bouquets than brick-bats for his plan. Only opposition, he said, was from those who want to tax "everything from shirts and shoes to bassinets and baby buggies."

Representative George T. Hinson of Mineola, who introduced the gas bill in the House, said it would bring in $1.06 from out-of-state for every $1 paid by Texans.

Hands Off.—Governors of 28 other states have joined him, says Governor Daniel, in fight against President Eisenhower's proposed 1½-cent raise of the federal gasoline tax.

This tax field should be left to the states, the governor believes. Texas Highway Commission, he pointed out, is asking for a one-cent raise in the state gasoline tax to help pay mounting road building bills.

Under the present federal aid formula, Daniel estimated that with a 1½-cent federal tax increase, Texans would pay $137,000,000 more in gasoline taxes than would be returned to the state or highway building.

Grist for the Session.—Most of the bills which will be stirring up the air in the next few weeks already are in the mills. Among them are these measures which would:

Provide for party registration by voters at the time they pay their poll taxes, by Representative Jamie Clements of Crockett. Only persons registered as party members would be allowed to participate in primaries and conventions.

Raise teacher pay by approximately $800 a year, and lengthen school year to 190 days, by Representative L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. This follows recommendations of the Hale-Aikin school year to 190 days, by Representative Truett Latimer of Abilene.

Increase liquor taxes from $1.40 to $2.50 a gallon, by Representative Pete LaVelle of Texas City. This was one of Governor Daniel's recommendations to bring in an estimated $18,000,000.

Tax corporation income on a graduated scale, by Representative Dean Johnson of Houston, to raise an estimated $20,000,000 annually.

Increase truck weight limit from 52,420 to 72,000 pounds, by Representative R. L. Strickland of San Antonio. Same bill was defeated after stiff fight last session.

Require open meetings by all governmental agencies, except where they are now required by law to be confidential, by Representative Truett Latimer of Abilene.

Change primary election dates from July and August to the first and fourth Tuesdays in May, by Representative Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio.

Give all cities of more than 10,000 full authority to regulate wages and hours of firemen and policemen, by Representative Ben D. Sudderth of Brownwood. This is a matter of sharp controversy.

A counter measure, introduced by Representative Bob Johnson of Dallas, would reduce hours and increase pay for firemen and policemen.

Provide a new University of Texas medical branch. Rival bills are being pushed—one by the Austin delegation directing that the school be built in Austin, and another by the San Antonians, specifying their home city.

Prohibit labor unions from using regular dues and assessments for political purposes, by Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas. Unions would be required to file an annual audited financial statement with the secretary of state.

Loan state funds to establish local homes for old people, a constitutional amendment proposed by Representative Murray Watson of Mart.

Set butter-fat content of milk offered for sale at a minimum of 3½ per cent, by Representative Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches.

Raise unemployment benefits from $28 to $40 a week and extend pay period from 24 to 39 weeks, by Representative Roger Dally of Houston.

Require employers to recognize a collective bargaining agent supported by a majority of employees, by Representatives Clyde Miller and Robert Eckhardt of Houston.

Allow higher speed limits on Texas highways. One proposal, by Representative Bill Jones of Dallas, would raise maximum from 60 to 70 miles per hour. Another, by Representatives Tom James of Dallas and Louis Anderson of Midland, would permit the Texas Highway Commission to regulate maximum up or down as road conditions justify.

Abolish poll taxes as a requisite for voting, by Representatives B. H. Dewey of Bryan and Maude Isaacks of El Paso.

Have Democratic executive committee members elected by direct primaries, rather than selected at the state convention, by Representative Dewey.

Repeat the law requiring that a local vote be taken before a school can desegregate, by Representative Don Gladden of Fort Worth.

Make Arlington State College a four-year school, by Senators Doyle Willis of Fort Worth and George Parkhouse of Dallas. Similar proposals were put forward for John Tarleton College at Stephenville and Midwestern University at Wichita Falls.

Allow legislators to set their own pay by a two-thirds record vote, a constitutional amendment by Senator Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo. Hardeman was a leader in the defeat of the last pay raise amendment.

Ban automobile selling on Sunday, by Senator Ray Roberts of McKinney.

Pied Pipers Go to Anson for Tilt Friday as Race Near End

Home Stretch to Depend on Loss By Stamford

Hamlin's Pied Piper took new hope this week that they might have a chance at the District 6-AA basketball crown. Stamford's Bulldogs, sitting at the head of the standings, Tuesday night lost their first game of the conference to the Haskell Indians. The Bulldogs would have to lose another game to give the other district teams a chance.

Coach Neil Laminack's cagers go to Anson Friday (tomorrow) night for a second crack at the Tigers. The Pipers previously had defeated the Anson boys by 50 to 43 count on the Hamlin court.

As is usually the case when teams from the two towns meet, big crowds are expected to witness the double bill Friday night. The B squads will square away at 7:00 o'clock, and the A teams will take the court at 8:15.

The conference race is nearing a climactic end. Following the Anson game, the Pipers will play Stamford next Tuesday night on the home courts, then go to Haskell next Friday night for the final encounter.

Coach Laminack says his boys have shown some improvement in recent games, and the remaining three encounters should be well worth seeing.

WELL HIDDEN.

A colony of ostriches, 99 birds in all, had their heads neatly buried in the sand when ostrich No. 100 came upon the scene. He looked around in a puzzled manner and said:

Stamford's Bulldog basketballers were thrown for a loop Tuesday night by the Haskell Indians and the defeat gave other teams in District 6-AA some hope for a shot at the title. ### Anson Tigers Defeat Haskell Indians in Friday Tilt 64 to 54

Anson's Tigers maintained their tie for second place with Hamlin Pied Pipers in the District 6-AA basketball race Friday night by whipping the Haskell Indians on the Anson courts 64 to 54. Wayne Ammons was high pointer for the losers, and Charles Barth scored 23 points to pace the Anson crew.

The Anson girls swamped Haskell 64 to 26, with Milda Davis bucketing 30 points for Anson, and Myla Kreger led the Indian maidens with 12. The victory gave the Anson quint the lead with four wins and no losses.

The Anson B boys defeated the Haskell boys 36 to 32 as Bobby Gilson of Anson was high pointer with 16 points, and Mike Blackman led the Haskell group with 11 points.

Hamlin Junior High Girls Nosed Out in Avoca Meet Finals

Hamlin Junior High School girls played very good basketball in getting to the finals of the Avoca junior cage tournament last week-end.

The Hamlin girls turned back Hawley girls 29 to 11 in the opener. They then defeated Albany 25 to 20 and met Paint Creek in the finals.

Paint Creek girls won their thirty-third game in a row by nosing out the Hamlin girls 20 to 19. Excellent play was turned in by Hamlin Forwards Sandra Jayroe, Laguna Weaver and Billy Blankinship. The Hamlin guards have been very effective in holding down their opponents' scores. They are Mary Beth Hall, Mary Debs Rountree, Arlene Waldon, Sunny Teague and Jolene Bonds.

The Hamlin boys dropped their only tournament game to Hawley by a 42 to 14 score. There was no consolation. Albany boys won the tournament.

Junior High Cagers Play Merkel Monday

4-H Club Entries Among Winners At District Show

According to County Agent Kirby Clayton, several Jones County 4-H Club boys were represented in the prize winners at the Abilene District Stock Show last week by entries in the calf, fat lambs, fat hogs and rabbit divisions.

Phillip Newsom, Lueders 4-H, who was owner of the grand champion calf in the recent Jones County show, placed ninth and tenth in the lightweight milk fed division and fifteenth with his dry lot heavyweight steer.

Stanley Harvey, owner of the reserve champion calf at the county show, also of the Lueders 4-H, placed eighth with the lightweight milk fed steer.

Gary Cauble, Hamlin 4-H Club member, placed eleventh with his medium weight dry lot steer.

All these calves made the premium sale and sold for over 36 cents.

Mimi Sue Olson of the Ericksdahl 4-H Club, failed to place with her steer entry.

Tommy Jones of Anson 4-H, won second place with a pen of three rabbits which he exhibited.

David Lundgren and Stephen Haterius of Ericksdahl 4-H Club exhibited fat lambs, but did not place in the top 10 of their class.

Stanley Smith, Hamlin 4-H Club boy, exhibited a fat barrow, but did not place in the top 10 of his class.

Water Conditions Over State Better Than Year Ago, Board Report Shows

Although the Hamlin territory experienced generally drouth-like weather conditions during December, flow in most Texas streams and rivers receded gradually throughout the month except for small rises occurring in scattered areas, according to the monthly water conditions report just released by the Texas Board of Water Engineers to The Herald. Highlights from the monthly report follow:

Flow was above average for the fifth consecutive month in the streams from the Guadalupe River west. From the Colorado River eastward, stream flow receded to far below that usually expected for this season except in the lower Colorado, Brazos and Trinity Rivers, where flow was sustained by normal and flood water releases from up-river reservoirs.

Total usable water in 34 major reservoirs in Texas at the end of December was 8,539,390 acre feet, which is 84 per cent of conservation capacity. Total storage, which includes temporary storage of water in flood pools, was some 10,003,320 acre feet or about 47 per cent of total storage capacity.

In selected observation wells from Houston to El Paso, six recorded rises in water levels and two registered declines during December. The water level reached an all-time high in the Travis County well near Buda. Observation wells in Harris County recorded rises during the month, but water levels were still at record lows for December. The well in Uvalde recorded a rise in water level for the sixteenth consecutive month to reach the highest water level observed since October 7, 1950.

Rainfall during the month at selected stations over the state and for the year is tabulated as follows:

Small Movement of Livestock Brings Better Prices at Fort Worth Markets

Stormy weather across the nation from the Gulf Coast to Canada curtailed the movement of livestock to market early this week, notes Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald in his weekly market summary. The release continues: The result was a forced trade with stronger prices. Buyers who found their selves in need of supplies were unable to avoid higher costs, and stockmen enjoyed one of the better markets of the winter season. The continued strength of the stocker and feeder cattle trade was helpful in maintaining prices in that category.

At Fort Worth Monday the cattle and calves were active and prices were fully steady to strong, with a few spots 25 to 50 cents higher on most kinds.

Senator David Ratliff Assigned to Working Senate Committees

Senator David Ratliff of Stamford, state senator from this 24th Senatorial District, has been assigned as a member of six Senate committees and vice chairman of one in appointments announced at Austin.

He is vice chairman of the congressional, legislative and judicial districts committee.

Among other things this committee will be concerned with a bill introduced by Representative Max Carriker of Roby in the House which would switch Fisher County from the 104th District Court to 32nd District Court.

Senator Ratliff is a member of the Senate affairs, government nominations, oil and gas, insurance, and education committees.

"I've got my work cut out," Ratliff observed. "These are all working committees."

State affairs committee meets twice a week and governor's nominations, every day, he said. Oil and gas is a committee concerned with one of the vital industries of Ratliff's district.

Good and choice steers and yearlings sold from $26 to $28.50, the mature steers from $27.50 upward. The sifted steers from a stock show ranged from $29 upward. Plain and medium stocker cattle sold from $18 to $25.

Fat cows cleared at $28.50 to $31 and canners and cutters sold from $13 to $19. Bulls bulked mostly from $18 to $23.50, some stocker bulls to $25.

Good and choice slaughter calves cashed at $26 to $29, a few above that range. Medium and lower grades sold from $18 to $25.50.

Medium and good stocker calves ranged from $26 to $33, with helpers from $31 downward. A few extreme lightweights sold upward from $33. Stocker steer yearlings drew $31 downward, and heifers sold from $28 down.

Choice No. 1 and No. 2 hogs scaling 200 to 225 pounds topped at Fort Worth Monday at $27.25, and the rank and file choice hogs ranged from $26.75 to $27. Light weights, mediums and a few heavies sold from $15.50 to $16.50, and some butcher pigs sold around $14 to $15. Sows sold at $13 to $15.

The sheep and lambs were in limited supply of Fort Worth and at other points around the market circle Monday. Prices were fully steady to strong, with spots 25 to 50 cents higher, quality considered.

Good to choice slaughter lambs sold for $16 to $17, and medium to good stocker and feeder lambs sold for $15 to $17.50. Yearling muttons sold at $13 to $15, and a few slaughter ewes and goats sold from $7.50 to $8.50.

Negotiations with the City of Fort Worth for the Market Institute to use the old show buildings of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show for the special stocker and feeder cattle sale on March 5 were progressing this week.

The site is behind the old North Side coliseum and just across the street from the west boundary of the stockyards. The building was the scene of many memorable cattle sales in the years when the stock show was located on this site, and the fine concrete and steel sale arena will make an unexcelled show case for the sale cattle.

The March 5 event will be an all-breed affair designed to offer a special sale for the cattle and calves coming off winter pastures in this Southwestern range country. It will provide northern and western buyers a good cross section of the Texas crop of stockers and feeders.

The sale will be the first one in this area since 1943. In that year the Fort Worth Stock Show was halted by World War II and when it was resumed it was in the new location at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum.

Hamlin Women Buy Anson Flower Shop

Change in ownership of Lawrence Flowers at Anson was announced there last week by Seth Lawrence Jr. The business has been sold to Mrs. H. W. Madden and Mrs. Billy Joe Wilson of Hamlin, Lawrence said.

Mrs. Madden and Mrs. Wilson assumed management Monday, January 26, with Mrs. M. Freeman, a veteran of 10 years in the business, and Mrs. Otis Tucker, a resident of Anson for 17 years, in charge. The new owners have operated the Hamlin Flower Shop the past three years.

Bryant-Link Firm Sells Last Stores In Recent Deals

Bryant-Link Company, beginning dates back to 1884 in Anson, has been dissolved with the sale of the last two stores of the firm.

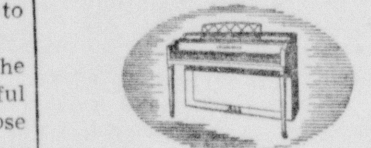

Bryant-Link Hardware Company in Stamford was sold to Archie Pardue, Stamford rancher, and is being changed to the Pioneer Hardware. Bryant-Link Company store at Aspermont is being replaced by Lambeth's. P. D. Lambeth of Stamford, who has been store manager there for the past five years, is president of the new corporation, Lambeth's, Inc. He has been commuting, and he and his wife will move to Aspermont. Pioneer Hardware will be managed by Charles Vaden, who is Pardue's son-in-law.

Bryant-Link Company, one of the oldest firms of continuous service in West Texas, opened its Stamford store in March, 1900. The Aspermont store was started in 1902. The chain was expanded in later years to include a branch at Hamlin. The grocery section was sold about 15 years ago. The hardware section was purchased by Tom Teague some eight years ago, when McDonald's purchased the dry goods section.

John C. Bryant of Hamlin was recently elected vice president of the company at the annual meeting of stockholders.

Water Problems of Texas and Nation Demand Unity of Action, Says Senator

Water, the dominant problem in Texas, is the target of new attack in Washington, declares U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson in his weekly Washington news letter to The Herald. He continues:

Legislation creating the United States Study Commission on eight great river basins in Texas was enacted into law by the last Congress. It was my privilege to introduce the bill.

Now, as one of my first acts of the new Congress, I have introduced an amendment broadening representation on the commission by:

Adding to the commission a member-at-large, appointed by the governor of Texas, who would represent the Texas Board of Water Engineers.

Separating the Guadalupe and San Antonio River basins to provide a commission member for each.

In cooperation with state agencies, the commission is responsible for preparation of plans aimed at fullest utilization of Texas' land and water resources.

This is good. But it is not enough.

Texas is not alone in facing a water problem. Nor is the Southwest. This is a problem of the nation. It calls for total attack.

The formula for success in such an attack was blueprinted two decades ago. Survival of the free world was at stake. The nation was threatened from without. The answer was found in the "Manhattan project." The goal was to unlock the inner secrets of the atom. The project succeeded.

A new era of opportunity was opened to all mankind.

Today the water problem threatens the future of the nation from within. Piece-meal attack is not enough. Successful solution demands unity of spirit and unity of action.

It is my firm hope the Senate will, during this Congress, lay before the president and offer to the people a program through which Texas and the nation may solve our dominant common problem.

The time has come when we must dedicate the resources, the mental talent, the can-do spirit of our nation to a second "Manhattan project"—a Manhattan project on water!

WHITE BULL AND STRONG BEAR, inseparable Indian friends, portrayed by Sal Mineo and Rafael Campos, respectively, attentively survey a herd of wild horses in this scene from Walt Disney's technicolor production, "Tonka," also starring Jerome Courtland and Phillip Carey. The feature film plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater.

Representative Leon Thurman Offers Several Bills at Start of New Session

The Texas Legislature is getting down to business, reports Leon Thurman of Anson, representative from the 86th District, of which this area is a part. He makes the following report in a release to The Herald:

Your representative has introduced bills pertaining to the following:

A bill pertaining to a raise in school teachers' salaries that would provide an increase of $600 annually.

A bill to remove the red tape in requiring title insurance on right-of-way purchases under the 50-50 plan as passed by the fifty-fifth Legislature. Under this bill the county judge of each county would certify that the right-of-way had been purchased in accordance with the law, and send such certification to the highway department and comptroller for payment. We believe this will facilitate the purchase of rights-of-way.

Another bill introduced by this representative is to the effect that telephone companies would be required, in asking cities for rate increases, to take into consideration all toll and long distance calls in computing their profit and loss statements. As you know, at the present they do not give any credit to the city in asking for rate increases. We believe this bill will stop the telephone companies from asking increases in rates as they would be showing a greater profit than they would be required, in asking cities for rate increases.

Another bill introduced would require the Department of Public Safety to file in court an application to show that a defendant is guilty of negligence if he has had an accident before his driver's license can be suspended and license plates removed from his automobile. In our opinion the present set-up gives the Department of Public Safety power to take a man's driver's license and automobile tags without a day in court, and we feel that anyone should have his day in court and a license should be suspended by a judge and not a department.

It is our intention to send each newspaper in our district some news item each week for its use.

Typing Students At HHS Complete Primary Course

Students of Typing I at Hamlin High School have completed the first semester's work satisfactorily, reports Dora D. Mitchell, commercial studies instructor.

The group were to gain knowledge and understanding of the typewriter and its uses; to master the key locations and correct typewriting techniques, such as posture, stroking and keeping the eyes on the copy; to develop manipulative skill with the machine; to develop power, speed and control; to become sensitive to arrangement of typewritten material for readability and neatness; to develop habit of neatness, accuracy and concentration.

The students were to gain a minimum typing skill of 25 words per minute on a five-minute timed writing with not more than one error for each 100 words typed.

Students who typed 50 words per minute were Cynthia Patterson, Pat Bigham, Peggy Dodd and Victor Criswell. Above 40 words per minute were Phyllis Hollis, Steve Stephens, Barbara Cheshire, Lana Lancaster, Judy Ford, Ann Richey, Kay Milliron and Brenda Fincannon. Writing above 30 words per minute were Iona Seaton, Carolyn Nunley, Tobe Shields, Ed Shields, Martha Gage, Terry Scott, Joyce Gray, Linda Perry, Sharon Cary, Ronnie Dodd, Bob Martin, William Cranford and Norman Cranford. Those less than 30 words per minute but over the requirement were Jimmy Beasley, Otha Brown, Charles Scott, Ronnie Hill, Linnie Johnson, Junior Lee and Teddy Westmoreland, Ronnie Rawlond and Marion Carter.

Two thought-provoking films bearing on the work being done by the State and National Heart Associations provided the program for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club, held at the HHHH Lions Club, held Tuesday noon at the oil mill guest house.

The colored films, arranged by Jones County Heart Association Chairman Austin Siburt, were on "High Blood Pressure" and "Strokes." They showed in animated drawing the reactions of the heart and blood system to over exertion and other strains that are put on the hearts of people.

It was announced by Siburt that a city-wide campaign for funds will be made in Hamlin on the afternoon of Sunday, February 22.

It was reported by Linos Club Treasurer Ed Croan that about $235 would be cleared on the pancake supper sponsored by the club last Friday evening. The club's portion of the proceeds, it was announced, will be used toward a delicate eye operation for a Hamlin youngster. Major project of Lions Clubs is assistance for children with deficient vision.

San Antonio's famed fun month, "fabulous February," hits full-swing February 13 when San Antonio's tenth anniversary Livestock Exposition and World Championship Rodeo moves into the huge Joe Freeman coliseum for a 10-day run through February 22.

The stock show and rodeo officially opens with the mammoth colorful Western parade which starts at 10:30 a. m., Friday, February 13. The parade, which annually draws hundreds of thousands of spectators, numerous Texas bands, riding groups and community floats, will wind through the downtown streets of the Alamo city floats, will wind through the show, Dale Robertson, and Governor Price Danell heading the parade as honorary grand marshals.

W. H. Pickron Jr. Gets New Air Force Rank

Major W. H. Pickron Jr. of the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Knoxville, Tennessee, was last week promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Young Pickron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickron of Hamlin. He has been in the for 18 years. His family is living at Knoxville.

Rafael Campos in Second Picture as Indian Character

Dynamic young Rafael Campos tackles his second consecutive Indian role as the young Sioux warrior, Strong Bear, in Walt Disney's technicolor production, "Tonka," starring Sal Mineo, Phillip Carey and Jerome Courtland, which plays Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ferguson Theater in Hamlin.

It is also the second consecutive time that Campos has played the trusted warrior comrade of the star. In "Tonka" he gives his life to save Sal Mineo in the climactic Custer's Last Stand battle sequence, and in his previous Disney role in "The Light in the Forest," as the Delaware brave Half Arrow, he was the trusted battle companion of James MacArthur, a white boy-turned-Indian.

"Actually, there's quite a difference in the two roles, despite the obvious similarity," says Rafael. "As Half Arrow I was an Eastern Delaware Indian, and had my hair shaved for the part. But for the role of Strong Bear, a Western Sioux Indian, I wore my hair very long with a head band. To me this makes a big difference!"

Campos is Hollywood's only actor from the Dominican Republic. He was born on May 13, 1936, at Santiago, Dominican Republic, the son of Manuel and Luz Campos. He has one brother two years his senior. He attended Puerto Plata school until the family moved to New York City, where his father was attached to the Dominican consulate. He completed his education at New York's High School of Performing Arts.

"Tonka," based on the novel, "Comanche" by David Appel, is a Buena Vista release.

ABSOLUTELY NO DANGER. In a saloon in the Wild West guns were blazing, and men were running here and there when a mild looking man strolled in and leaned casually against the bar. Finally all was quiet.

The barman came up and congratulated the man on his perfect nerve control.

"Oh, that's nothing," said the man with a smile. "I'm quite safe. You see, I owe everybody in this place."
